

Federal Emergency Management Agency

David L. de Courcy: Regional Director, Region 10

David L. de Courcy was appointed Regional Director of FEMA's Region 10 by President Clinton in June 1995. As Regional Director, he coordinates mitigation, preparedness and disaster response and recovery activities in Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

Before joining FEMA, Mr. de Courcy worked for the Department of Energy, focusing on waste management and environmental restorations efforts for the nation's nuclear weapons production sites. He served as project manager for an Environmental Impact Statement analyzing national strategies for the management of hazardous and radioactive waste. Previously, Mr. de Courcy practiced law in Connecticut and Seattle. In 1987, he established the law firm of de Courcy and Cohen.

A native of Connecticut, Mr. de Courcy holds a bachelor's degree from Yale University and a law degree from Boston University.

Updated: February 1997

David L. de Courcy

FEMA Fax-on-Demand Service

Distributed by the FEMA
Office of Emergency
Information and Media Affairs

24-hour Fax-on-Demand:
(202) 646-FEMA
All other inquiries:
(202) 646-4600